Who is NBPC?

We are the Ultimate Teacher Conference!

The National Best Practices Conference brings together the Best Teaching and Learning strategies for ALL students and programs such as Bilingual Education, Gifted and Talented, ESL, Special Education, technology in the classroom, math, science, social studies, and language arts!

Teachers, administrators, and support staff will learn effective strategies from practioners in the field. Educational "Silos" are no longer viable. Instead, we all learn to better meet our students' academic and/or linguistic needs from effective universal BEST PRACTICES.

Date: February 13, 20, & 27, 2021
